In re:

City of Detroit, Michigan,

Debtor.

Bankruptcy Case No. 13-53846

Honorable Thomas J. Tucker

Chapter 9

REPLY IN SUPPORT OF DEBTOR'S
TWENTY-EIGHTH OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CERTAIN CLAIMS

(INSUFFICIENT DOCUMENTATION)

The City of Detroit ("City"), by its undersigned counsel, files this reply in support of its Twenty-Eighth Omnibus Objection to Certain Claims ("Objection," Doc. No. 10784), stating as follows:

1. On February 26, 2016, the City filed its Objection. The following individuals filed responses to the Objection:<sup>1</sup>

- (a) Response filed by Brenda F. Ellis [Doc. No. 10864] ("Ellis Response").<sup>2</sup> Ellis's proof of claim and her response to the Objection are attached as Exhibits 1 and 2.
- (b) Response filed by Bradford Comit Jr. [Doc. No. 10849] ("Comit Response"). Comit's proof of claim and his response to the Objection are attached as Exhibits 3 and 4.

<sup>1</sup> Additional responses were filed, but all other responses were either stricken for filing deficiencies or will be handled via a separate procedure recently approved by the Court. Doc. No. 10941. As noted below, the Ellis Response is subject to a pending deficiency notice.

<sup>2</sup> A deficiency notice was entered by the Court on March 21, 2016. [Doc. No. 10870]. The deficiency has not yet been cured.

- (c) Response filed by Da'Neane M. Brooks [Doc. No. 10897] ("Brooks Response"; and collectively with the Ellis and Comit Responses, the "Responses"). Brooks's proof of claim and her response to the Objection are attached as Exhibits 5 and 6.

Ellis Response

2. The Ellis Response should be overruled. The Objection stated that Ellis's proof of claim lacked any documentation showing that the City owed her the money claimed<sup>3</sup> because her proof of claim merely states that she is owed $25,000 as a result of a 10% wage cut. Ex. 1. In response to the Objection, she now claims that the City's $25,000 obligation to her arises from a worker's compensation claim, rather than from diminished wages. A claim may not be amended after the bar date has expired to assert an entirely different claim. E.g., United States v. Int'l Horizons, Inc. (In re Int'l Horizons, Inc.), 751 F.2d 1213, 1216-17 (11th Cir. 1985). And, even if Ellis were permitted to amend her claim, she still provides no documentation to show why she is entitled to $25,000. Ex. 2. Therefore, the Objection should be sustained as to her claim.

Comit Response

3. The Comit Response should be overruled. The Objection objected to Comit's proof of claim because it lacked any documentation showing that the City owed him the money claimed. Comit's proof of claim simply states that the City owes him $1 million for “Services Performed.” Ex. 3. The Comit Response provides no documentation as to why the City owes him this sum; instead, it consists of confusing (and dubious) legal arguments, none of which explain how Comit arrived at his $1 million figure.<sup>4</sup> Ex. 4. As such, it fails to respond to the Objection, and thus the Objection should be upheld as to his claim.

Brooks Response

4. The Brooks Response also should be overruled. The Objection objected to Brooks’s proof of claim because it provides no documentation explaining why the City owes her an estimated $2,200,000. Ex. 5. Like the Comit Response, instead of responding to the Objection, the Brooks Response attacks the City’s confirmation order. Ex. 6. And like Ellis and Comit, the Brooks Response contains no documentation for her claim. The Brooks Response simply states, “I believe I have sufficient documentation for my claim. If you should require additional documentation, please contact me. I will respond promptly.” This was

<sup>4</sup> The City’s interpretation of the Comit Response is that it is meant as a collateral attack on the City’s confirmed Plan. See, e.g., Comit Response, ¶¶ 8-11. If that is the intent, the proper way to make these arguments would have been in an objection to confirmation, not in response to an objection to his proof of claim. See DeLorean v. Gully, 118 B.R. 932, 935 n.1 (E.D. Mich. 1990) (noting that a collateral attack is a request for relief, which, if granted, “must in some fashion overrule a previous judgment.”) (citation and quotation marks omitted). Here, Comit’s arguments (e.g., the City’s allegedly improper solicitation of votes for its plan) relate to issues settled by the confirmation order entered previously in this bankruptcy case. Comit is not entitled to relitigate that issue here. Id.

her opportunity to provide her documentation, however; neither the City nor the Court is required to make multiple requests. Because the Brooks Response fails to respond to the Objection, the Objection should be upheld as to her claim.

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, the City asks the Court to overrule the Responses and sustain the City's Objection to these claims.

In re:

Creditors

Bankruptcy case No. 13-53846
Honorable Thomas J. Tucker
Chapter 9

CREDITORS AFFIRMATION RESPONSE REJECTION TO DEBTOR OBJECTION SEEKING TO MODIFY DISALLOW ANCE AND/OR EXPUNGE CERTAIN FILED PROOFS OF CLAIM.

I the creditor Bradford Comit Jr, duly swear depose and say: That I reject the objection response of the Debtor, the city of Detroit Objection seeking to modify, disallow and/or expunge certain filed proofs of claim for the following reasons.

1) The Debtor, the city of Detroit have no cause against any of the named objectors except Charles Raimi and we never agreed to disallow our claim.

2) That this is not a class action and therefore, the Debtor have no standing to omnibus object certain claims against the other creditors, especially when they have different reason for filing their claims under these circumstance. The debtor, the city of Detroit has not established a case on action to which the objectors named in exhibit 2 as claims, has to respond or reply to.

3) That the only way that the debtor, the city of Detroit can legally address or object to these objectors listed is if they filed something in the last 14 days, otherwise there objection is untimely, in accordance to the bankruptcy rules and bankruptcy regulation code.

4) The debtor, the city of Detroit failed to state what constitute sufficient documentation to ascertain their validity. This is ridiculous, since the debtor is the one who prepare these exhibits, if the city want more clarification they should be more specific, stating what they want and the creditors then won't have guest.

5) The debtor has not demonstrated the objection is in the best interest of the city. The creditors is part of the city and we object to the notion that other objection having been held before the court and alleging that any others have been overruled before the creditor has respond show beyond a doubt preconceived prejudice against the creditors in the court.

6) The debtor is in violation of the rules and procedures of only written on one side of the paper and both side is prohibited by the court.

7) The court has jurisdiction only over Charles Raimi, unless the other claimant give their consent.

8) The debtor failed to comply with Sections 942 and 1127(d) "All creditors entitled to vote on the Plan received proper notice of the Confirmation hearing, The debtor failed to comply with the Bankruptcy code requiring a notice to be given of the commencement of the case in according to 11 U.S.C. section 923 of the Bankruptcy code. The Bankruptcy Rule provided that the clerk, or such other person as the court may direct is to give notice Fed.R.Bankr Procedure 2002(f). The notice "must" be also published "at least once a week for three successive weeks in at least one newspaper of general circulation published within the district in which the case commenced and in such other newspaper having a general circulation among bond dealers and bondholders as the court designates, in title 11U.S.C. sect 923 of the bankruptcy code.

9) That most creditors and anyone of interest never received a adequate notice and hearing, which is a denial of due process of law. In the present context these principles require that a person have timely and adequate notice detailing the reasons for the notice and an effective opportunity to defend. Armstrong v. Manzo, 380 U.S. 545, 552 (1965).

10) The debtor has contravened 11 USC 903 that states in part (1) "municipality may not blind any creditor that does not consent to such composition (2) a judgment entered under such a law may not blind a creditor that does not consent to such composition. Where in the files or on paper is the consent? This Debtor's Twenty-Eight Omnibus Objection to certain claims should be dismissed.

11) The class that voted received a counterfeit voting ballot and was not a proper legal official form 14 ballot and fraudulent, due to the signatures were on a separate page from the voting box and could be easily manipulated and was not conducted to preserve the purity of the election process, to provide an adequate opportunity to object to any amendments and modification to the Fourth Amended Plan: (a) The people never were legally notified according to the bankruptcy rules and code regulation. The eighth amendment plan was filed on May 5, 2014 and one newspaper article in all the three new papers on May 9, 2014 after the fact and is an unrecoverable violation. The rule states it must be in three different newspapers for three (3) consecutive weeks that never was done, therefore, due process and equal protection of the law violation of the Basic Civil Voting Right law and the 5th and 14th Amendment violations of the Constitution of the United States.

12) I object and reject the debtor's twenty-eight omnibus objection to certain claims because the material included with the voting packages has some solicitation for a "yes votes" with letters from Shirley Lightsey a representative of the retiree committee, Donald Taylor president of Detroit retiree, Police and Fire Fighters on the behalf of the board of directors and the Emergency Manager, Kevyn Orr encouraging a yes votes in violation of the Michigan Election Statute 168.485 that states the language used shall not create no prejudice for or against the issue or proposal. This clearly is violations of Basic voting right act and the Michigan Election Statute, therefore, Due process and equal protection of the law violations of the 5th and 14th Amendment of the Constitution of the United State.

13) This plan of adjustment to seek to modify, disallow and/or expunge certain proofs of claim with false allegation of insufficient documentation without revealing what is need to process the claim if there is information or Documentation need.

14) For the court to grant the debtor request to modify, disallow and/or expunge certain filed without revealing what information is need to complete the process and move forward and then made a blanket objection. This is not a one fit all claims because they are different and the omnibus objection is inappropriate and should be denied.

Re: Claim # 3383

Bankruptcy Case No. 13-53846-tjt Doc 10784 Filed 2/26/16 Entered 2/26/16 13:43:32

Dear Honorable Thomas J. Tucker and Clerk of the Court:

I, Da'Neen Brooks, am writing to request a continuation of my claim # 3383 in the United States Bankruptcy Court. I am submitting this written response indicating that I do not want the court to eliminate, expunge, or dismiss my claim as requested in the Twenty-<sup>Five</sup> ~~Three~~ Omnibus Objection to Certain Claims. The City of Detroit mismanaged funds for decades and I am in no way responsible for this. At the beginning stages of the Bankruptcy I was employed by the Detroit Water & Sewerage Department. The Water Department was never in the red and feel that we as a separate money making entity should have never been included in the bankruptcy. The bankruptcy has had a huge negative impact on me personally. I no longer am employed with the City of Detroit Water & Sewerage Department and was forced to resign and work for another company after almost 23yrs of service. Furthermore, monies were taken illegally from my pension as well as from other city employee's and retiree's, to pay for a bankruptcy that majority of us voted against. In addition to this I feel that the taking of monies from my pension was unconstitutional and that City Government should be held responsible and accountable. Lastly, I believe I have sufficient documentation for my claim. If you should require additional documentation, please contact me. I will respond promptly. Thank you for your consideration

Sincerely,

Da'Neen M. Brooks
